

Kindergarten Drama and Storytelling

The focus of this class will be the production of a fun and silly version of The Elves and the Shoemakers, which will be presented to families and friends the final class session. Class time will include theater games and storytelling. This is a fun and low pressure class and a great introduction to performing for young children.

WEDNESDAYS- 12:50-1:45

2/6-6/6 (17 class sessions)

Fee- $220

Instructor- Doug Cole

Doug Cole is the director of Doug's Drama, a children's theater program which offers after-school and summer classes in theater and improv. He is a former elementary school teacher at St. Paul's School in Oakland and Black Pine Circle School in Berkeley, and is a playwright, storyteller and musician. Doug is currently teaching drama at nine schools in the East Bay. More info at www.dougsdrama.com email douglasrcole@sbcglobal.net

Please return this form to Doug Cole at- 4509 Tompkins ave- Oakland 94619.

Checks payable to Doug Cole

Thornhil K- Student _____

Teacher _____

Parent Name _____ Home Phone _____

Work Phone _____ cell _____

Cell _____

Email _____

My child will be picked up _____ Go to AT _____